Calling all Emmaus, Chrysalis, Journey Musicians

We're working to update the musician database we currently keep. Whether you have served on a team or not, if you would like to be included in the database please send the following information to: jbailey1@grandecom.net Include your Name, Address, Home Phone, Work Phone, Cell Phone and E-mail address. Let us know whether you went thru Emmaus, Chrysalis or Journey to Damascus on your pilgrim walk. In what musical areas has the Lord gifted you - singing (i.e. soprano, bass, etc), which (if any) instruments do you play. What Church do you attend. Also let us know the number of Emmaus, Chrysalis, Journey music teams you have been on, if applicable. What music experiences have you had, if any, outside of Emmaus, Chrysalis, Journey. What other music groups or individual music activities do you or have you participated in? Help us to make a "Joyful noise to the Lord".
In Christ, Janice Bailey

God is so good! College-age Women's Journey #11 was blessed with 16 beautiful butterflies and the best team ever. Our sincere thanks go to all in the community who supported us with awesome agape, their presence at Candlelight and Closing, and most especially their prayers. Powerful prayers upheld us from team selection all the way through the weekend and we are grateful and very blessed. In His Grip,
Kathy Borhauer & Valerie Borhauer

Emmaus Community Spiritual Director

One of the most enjoyable and empowering moments of my life happens when a stranger asks directions to a place I know well. I can't say enough, it seems. There's just something ever so affirming about being an "authority" on something!

I wish I had that same "rush" of joy and power in other areas where I'm supposed to be an "expert". But, there is one experience I can count on: being a part of a team for a Walk, Journey or Chrysalis. Without fail, there are moments throughout the weekend where I experience such joy and power. And, it's never the result of my being an "expert". It's always the benefit of watching God at work, of being directed by the best Author and Authority of life itself.

Do yourself a favor. Whether at church or in our communities of Damascus and Emmaus, find a place to serve, share or stand. Jesus' promise that it's "more blessed to give than to receive" can be easily validated. Give of yourself to a Walk or Journey experience. Sponsor someone to such a "once-in-a-lifetime event". As you empty yourself into such an event, stand back and watch how full you'll be. You can never out give God.

Whether at candlelight or "true story" time at lunch, that's the gift of grace that's worth sharing. It always "knocks my socks off". What joy and power happens when God gives like that.

Rev. Billy Storms
