Women's Walk to Emmaus # 1123

January 22 - 25, 2004

*Rejoice always; pray without ceasing; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.
1 Thessalonians 5:16-18*

This beautiful scripture reminds us to be aware of God's presence in our lives every moment of every day. Planning this walk has been a lesson in surrender and the reward has been a deeper understanding of God's power in all aspects of our lives – great and small. Every little twinge of panic has been met by an overwhelming knowledge that God is in control. He created an awesome, joy-filled team that has been faithfully praying for each other and for the pilgrims since our first meeting in September. We can't wait to meet the pilgrims and to find out what amazing blessings God has in store for us. Please continue to remember us in your prayers.

Yours in Christ, Laurie W. Cook, Lay Director

The prayer of a Houston Journey made years ago is now coming to pass. The team is blessed to be lifted in prayer by so many spiritual communities - truly the Body of Christ is found throughout Texas! We ask that the Emmaus, Cursillo, Chrysalis, ACTS and Damascus communities continue to pray for the pilgrims and team. As the theme suggests; "Set your hearts on the Greater Gifts." (1 Corinthians 12:31), our hearts are set to give of our time and talents and of course the greatest gift of all, love. Please consider sponsoring someone as a pilgrim in the first Houston Journey to Damascus. Give the ultimate gift of agape, yourself! We have reserved the "Candlelight Bus" scheduled to leave Corpus Christi at 3:00 pm Saturday, February 7, 2004 and return after Candlelight. Partly funded by a generous donation, tickets are only $10 and include drinks and a meal. For Bus/Ticket information, call 993-9153 or email pat@amshore.com. Pillow agape and cookies are also needed for the weekend. Come and celebrate with us in person for this first Journey to Damascus - Houston!

Wear your Lanyard
& Bring a covered dish!

Thank You

Dear Community:

I have never felt more blessed and at Peace than during Journey to Damascus #23. All the prayers from the community permeated the weekend, the team and the pilgrims. We were surrounded and held in God's Holy Grace! I want to thank each of you for helping us put Christ into our Christmas season. Words are inadequate to say what a Joy we are all feeling and how grateful I am to have led this awesome Journey. May God continue to bless this movement and bless each of you, His children.

DeColores, Agnes L. Flores, LD
