CHRYSALIS NEWS

Candle Light Communion Service

Dear Friends in Christ,

After being absent from the Candlelight Ceremony for six months or so, I attended the May 20 (Women's Walk to Emmaus #1304) event after participating in Afterglow for the pilgrims and team of Walk #1250. This was a first-time experience for most of these young ladies.

Holy Communion is one of the, if not the most, sacred acts in which we Christians participate. It is the Sacrament that our Lord and Savior first shared at His Last Supper and instructed us to do often in remembrance of Him. It is a time of asking for forgiveness, of reflecting, and for praying. As I tried to do these things after receiving the sacred elements, I was aghast at the noise and activity level in the gym. Even though we were reminded to be in an attitude of prayer, people were talking loudly, laughing, and walking around visiting with friends. I wondered how those still in the receiving lines could concentrate on the meaning of Holy Communion amidst all the noise and activity.

My prayer is that Candlelight participants please treat this Sacrament in the reverent and respectful manner due it, remembering that it is the Body and Blood of Christ that we are sharing. May God continue to bless the Coastal Bend Emmaus, Chrysalis, and Damascus Communities.

De Colores,
Sue Hoyt, Walk #621

Women's Walk to Emmaus # 1312 July 20—23, 2006

He was known by them in the breaking of bread. – Luke 24:35

From the very beginning of team formation, this has been God's Walk. Now our walk in faith will lead us to the place where the Holy Spirit will use us as instruments of grace in the lives of these pilgrims. Thank you to this wonderful team and to our families, friends, and churches for supporting us during our work. Thank you to the sponsors for supporting your pilgrims. And thank you to a community who gives of themselves in faith.
