"Just as you did it for one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." Matthew 31:40

Men's Journey to Damascus # 57

Houston

January 24-27, 2008

"He has removed our rebellious acts as far as the east is from the west"
Psalms 103:12

"I believe that within all of us, God gives us a deep yearning for His grace, but, because of our sinful nature we rebel against His countless attempts to reach out to us. The more powerful our longing for inner change, the stronger is often the repression. Just as the Apostle Paul was defiant towards the early church, persecuting Jesus himself, when he was blinded on the road to Damascus, his defiance was disarmed. Paul, now broken and humbled, was ready to accept Jesus' exhortation from Matt. 11:29-30, "Take my yoke upon you — my yoke is easy and my burden is light". Thus, as we prepare for the JTD #57, please pray not only for the pilgrims, but the team members as well. Pray that our collective acts of willful disobedience will be disarmed, just as Paul's was on the road to Damascus, and that the light of Jesus which confronts us, will allow us to cast our cares upon Him. Pray that the stumbling blocks towards a life of grace will crumble and that the mercy of our Father in heaven will prevail for all of our fourth days, that His face will shine upon us and that He will grant us His peace.

Women's Walk to Emmaus # 1416

"My purpose is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." Col 2:2-3

Our team is grateful for your prayers and agape as we prepare for Walk 1416. We are still in need of pilgrims and encourage you to sponsor someone that God has placed on your heart. As you see, our logo has a heart, because we are encouraged in heart and united in love as we prepare ourselves for His service. May this first walk of 2008 be one that brings glory to God and brings each of us closer to Him. We look forward to seeing your smiling faces at candlelight and closing. De Colores!
